Being the last graduating class of the millennium is an exciting time. We, on the Turners Falls High School yearbook staff, know this and have put all our effort into making a special yearbook. Again, we were a regular class that worked together on the yearbook instead of after school as a club. This gave us plenty of time to meet all our deadlines and to put a little heart and soul into it.

Our class has grown up together and as adolescents in the Nineties we're coming to realize the year 2000 is right around the corner. The start of our new lives after high school will coincide with the start of the new millennium. This school year we are on a countdown to these events and for this reason we have chosen Countdown as the theme for this year's edition of Peske-Tuk.

Megan Sliva

Dedication

At the start of our journey here at Turners Falls High School we were introduced to a whole world of new things. As our class advisor, Mr. O'Riley took each of us down the right paths and pointed us in the right direction.

Mr. O'Riley was the center point of the class of 1999. He always helped everyone to make the right decisions and always helped us with our problems. He made sure that our time at Turners Falls High School was well spent.

During the past four years Mr. O has never let us down. Every fund-raiser, dance, and bottle drive have always included countless-hours, before and after the students arrive, to attach the final touches or to pick up after us! Float making at Mr. O's house was also a place where our class made many memories which we will remember for a lifetime.

The one thing that is going to be the hardest to forget about Mr. O is his smile and his happy hello he always greets everyone with. Thank you Mr. O'Riley for all the time and effort you have given us, you helped us learn and we've learned to grow from you.

Love,
The Class of '99

P.S. Special Thanks to Lynn O'Riley for her caring support.

I can't believe it's time for me to write this letter for the Senior section of the yearbook. I still don't feel like a senior, and soon we'll all be graduating and leaving T.F.H.S. behind. However, we've all collected many memories in the time we've spent here. The years have flown by uncontrollably, and we'll try to savor our last bit of time together.

We will always remember our (hopefully only) four years here, but I'll remind you of some highlights. We started as freshman, some of us timid and confused in the big high school. Our first challenge to prove ourselves was through floatmaking, the theme was WWII. At the home of Mr. O'Riley, our patient and generous advisor, we created a large, gray ship the USS Missouri. Jim Martineau and Molly Block represented our class as knight and lady-in-waiting. We may have lost, but got a taste of high school life.

Sophomore year came and went. We were no longer at the "bottom of the barrel." We lost our freshman status, and gained confidence as we grew. Booster Day arrived and Silvia Kells and Chris Masloski, our duchess and duke, led our Donkey Kong float under the theme of "Video Games." Who could forget our adorable Mario? With loads of paper mache, we were getting the hang of things. Somehow we ended up with another loss under our belts, but this didn't get us down. Unknowingly, we were growing closer and stronger as time marched on.

Then came Junior year. Many of us began to make our marks at the school, either in the classroom or on the playing field, court, course, or lane. We became attached to our school and peers. Again we raided Mr. O's home and created our most colorful and fruity float. Chris Boutwell, our prince, and myself, as princess, followed the Fruity Pebbles float, sadly, to our third loss. However, we were proud of our work and had fun painting Dino, the cereal box, and each other.

Now we're Seniors, on top of it all . . . and we have come a long way together. This year our king and queen, Jay Liimatainen and Jessamyn House, led our final float containing both Ursula and the Little Mermaid to a well-deserved victory. Our hard work paid off!! All of us contribute to our school on some level, and continue our love for the Indian spirit. But our days left here are numbered, busily filling in ovals for SAT's, possibly looking into one of the Services, or filling out college or job applications. Many of us are excited, scared, or fall somewhere in between. Everything has come at us so quickly, and now the question remains for each of us, "What do I do now with my life?"

Although we've all been fitted for our cap and gown, we still need to attend our Senior Prom, our class trip, reserve a copy of our class tape, and maybe hand out a few more senior pictures before a diploma is placed in our eager, nervous hands. With this, we can go anywhere, and make any and all of our wildest dreams come true. I truly wish everyone the best of luck and can hardly wait to see the class at our first reunion. At that time, I hope to see that a little Blue and White has remained in each and every one of your hearts.

Thank you to Mr. O'Riley, our very helpful and enthusiastic leader, supervisor, and friend, for all his continuous support.

Best of luck in the future!

CLASS OF 2000

President: Mark Pillsbury
Vice President: Toni Desalvo
Secretary: Jaclyn Kanash
Treasurer: Halissa Delphin
Historian: Liz Jason

Another year has come and gone. We left as sophomores and returned as juniors. Junior year started off with a bang during Booster week. The class worked hard to create an excellent float. "Snow White and the Seven Sports" was first place material but unfortunately we lost out to the Seniors. Our very deserving Prince and Princess were represented by Kurt Eichorn and Jaclyn Kanash.

With Senior year drawing closer and closer the pressure is on. Many of us are taking the PSAT's, the SAT's, as well as attending college fairs. What we are going to do and where we are going is at the back of all our minds. Times are changing and so are we.

This year the prom looks to be a hit. We chose the Yankee Peddler as the spot and have DJ Ry to entertain us. The junior class has spent many hours planning the big event and we hope the seniors appreciate our efforts. I sincerely hope that it turns out the way we've planned it to.

Our futures are looking bright and I can't wait to see what this year has in store for us.

CLASS OF 2001

President: Jeff Masloski
Vice President: Jessica Brown
Secretary: Kimberly Bruno
Treasurer: Tia Prevett
Historian: Kimberly Guilbault

Well, we've made a step up, and now we're sophomores. This year we came back and fit in easily, like we belonged. We were familiar with the school, its schedules, and its people. On sports teams and other activities we no longer had to carry the equipment and do the things no one else wanted to; we could tell the Freshmen to do it. We have seniority and hopefully we are people that others can look up to.

Float-making went smoothly this year, the other class officers: Jessica Brown, Kim Bruno, Jeff Masloski, and Tia Prevett, did a nice job of organizing and helping out. Our float's theme was Disney World. I think we surprised ourselves when everything came together and it looked how it was supposed to. We all thought we had a chance of winning. Too bad the judges didn't agree with us and gave us third. I know most of us were disappointed with our finish; as freshmen we had come in second. Overall, I believe our float was better this year. We came together and worked hard to get the job done.

Our Duke, Greg Brenner and our Duchess, Ashley Rau represented us well in the parade. This year's Booster week went by smoothly, hopefully the rest of our time will.

Well another year has gone by, where has the time gone? The seniors will be leaving us, and we'll never forget them. Hopefully, we can grow together through these remaining years and cherish the time together. Like our class cheer said, "Step back and watch the rest, 'cause you know which is the best...SOPHOMORES."

CLASS OF 2002

President: April Davies

I can't believe the year has gone by so fast. It has been a great first year at Turners.

It's been a full year since we were Crue, Falcons, or Ravens, though for many of us it feels like only yesterday. Looking back I remember how that first day of school went. "I can't be seen with them, they weren't on my team." "I don't have any classes with kids on my team." We were all happy though; we had reached another milestone in our life, high school. That was what really mattered.

The big event that brought us together was Booster Day. This year's theme was Disney, so we chose to do Alice in Sportsland. Our float looked great and we thought we would do well, but we came in fourth. That's okay, we have three more years ahead of us to get first place.

Jeff Hildreth and Susan Palumbo were chosen to be our knight and lady-in-waiting. They sure did look great, and made our class proud on Booster Day.

We have three more years left and plan to make them the best.

Sarah Harrington

Sarah,

You're a wonderful daughter and we want to tell you how proud we are. Proud of your accomplishments, of your ability to make your own choices and especially of the woman you've become.

We'll always be proud of you and now more than ever, we want you to know how much we love you.

Congratulations
&
Good luck
Love, Mom & Dad

Dear Granddaughter, niece and cousin, remember as you walk to the podium to receive your diploma, we will all be just as proud of you as you should be for yourself. Don't forget the holidays at Nana and Bompa's even though you missed so much being fashionably late and left fashionable early like a Za Za would. We were happy when your dad helped you with your schoolwork and you changed from "DD" to "BB". But put all the nicknames aside, you're loved very much and we wish you the most you can reach for so stand on your tippy toes. Come home for the holidays. Nana needs someone around who doesn't get the jokes either.

Love: Bompa, Nana, Aunty Patty, Deb and Tracy Uncle Mark and Carl, Nikol, Katy, Scott, Shanun and Samantha

Sara Mae,
I'm very proud of you. I can't believe I'm here to se you graduate.
Congratulations & Good Luck
Love Always,
Me-Me

Molly...

Take a bow for all you've accomplished! We are so proud of you! With much love, Mom, Dad, Ben, Abby & Maizy

Matt,

We want you to remember that wherever life takes you, whatever dreams you follow, and no matter how grown up you are, you'll always be special and our love will always be with you.

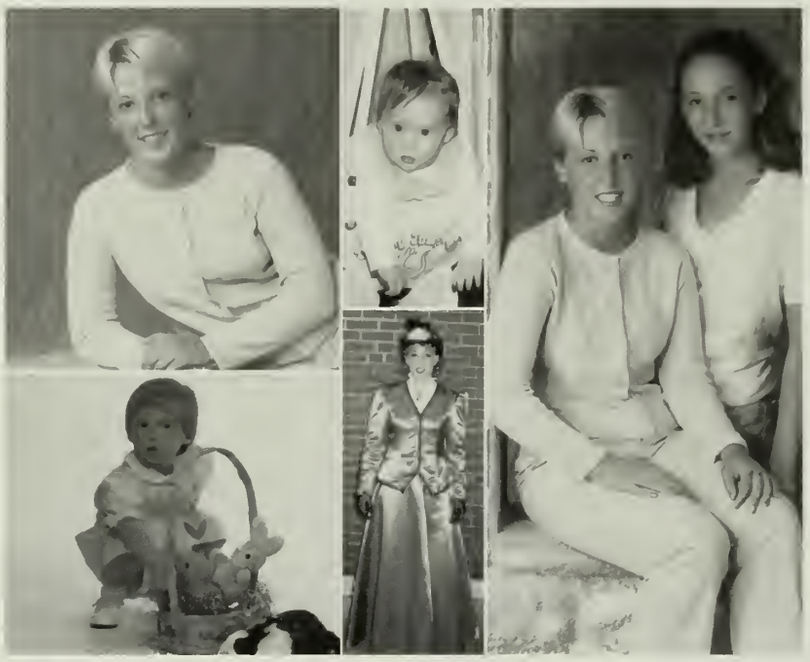
Congratulations
Love Dad and Paula

Scott,

It seems like only yesterday you chased me down the road at Hillcrest. Now you're graduating from high school.

We are proud of you. We know you can achieve whatever you set out to do.

Love, Mom and Dad



Genevieve,

Go forth with your smile and heart with all of our memories we'll never be apart.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Amy

HAYLEY

Dear Hayley,

No words could express the ups and downs of the past few years, but you have emerged to spread your wings and take flight. While we all are on the same journey, everyone's path is a little different. We hope you take with you the gifts of family and appreciation, and the joy of knowing that every day is a new day with "no mistakes in it... yet." Dad and I wish you all the love and happiness your heart can hold. I know grandma is very proud of you...

Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Hayley,
Good luck with all your endeavors, and have a nice life.

Trev

From your first little dirt bike, and driving in the passenger seat of our camaros...
The clock has ticked many times...
You've gone from a little boy who depended on Mom and Dad for lots of things. Now you are grown and don't need us as much. You have a bike on the road, even your own Trans Am.
We've always stood right by your side, watching as you learned; helping when you needed help.
Know that whatever you choose to do, we will be standing behind you, or beside you, every step of the way.
Yes, you are grown up, but you are still our "little boy".

Love,

Mom and Dad

We wish you happiness and success in your future!
With Love,

Jacob, Thanks for the great memories, wonderful shared moments, and warm friendship. It's been a privilege to share your life from birth to young adulthood and on. We've learned a lot. Here's to the future! I'm sure that the hard work you've done preparing yourself will bring years of happiness and success. You deserve it! All our love,
Mom and Dad

Michelle

Michelle,

The years have passed so fast. You are everything a parent could ever ask for and more.

Whenever things seemed trying, you could ease them. You've been such a joy to us we just don't have words to describe. All we really can say is Thank You! For letting us be your parent's!

Congratulations & Love You always, Mom & Dad

We're very proud of you...

MARTIN

CONGRATULATIONS

We are very proud of you.
Love, your family!

MARTIN, CONGRATULATIONS!

You've made it. I can't imagine you leaving the house and finally growing up. Good Luck, You may need it.

I will miss you.
Love, Shannon

Martin,

From the day you were born you stole my heart. From the first years in Maui to Millers Falls, South Hadley through the past ten years in Montague, you're everything that a mother could want from a son. You've grown into a fine young man. With your accomplishments you have the ability to achieve your goals in life's journey. Remember I will always be here for you.

Love. Mom

Silvia

When you were small,
we would tuck you in all safe at night,
and hear your prayers,
turn out the lights.
Then tiptoe safely to the door
now we wished we stayed a minute more.
When you were seven and choked on chives,
we thought surely you'd give us hives.
Now you're grown, going on your own,
It's unbelievable how time has flown.
Always keep that beautiful smile.
It will help you through your longest mile.
From nursery rhymes to graduation
we wish you success and congratulations
Love Mom & Dad

Silvia,

u have grown from a pretty little girl into a utiful young woman. Before our eyes we see you ching for your dreams and we are there to support u. Grandfather

Eric, What can a mother write at a time like this? All the loving memories of you, as a little baby, a little boy, an adolescent and now a young man, flood my mind with happiness and emotion.
February 28, 1980: a snowy night at 9 PM, 7 pounds 6 ounces. Grammie says you look like a bulldog.
1982: We move to Erving from N Street. Butter comes up with you and Dad. Max doesn't like it one bit.
1983-84: We commute daily to Amherst together. You go to Grass Roots and I go to French Hall. Your first pair of skates and trips to Highland Pond. Grammie Desbien passes away.
1985-93: Your experiences at Erving Elementary. Little league, summer camps, Franklin County Hockey. Grammie Carol dies one month before your 6th grade graduation. Fishing with Grandfather 1993-95: Lots of hockey and trophies, soccer at Great Falls Middle School and discovering Franklin County lacrosse. Beginning your hockey referee career. Water-skiing at camp.
1995-Fall 1998: Interesting times as a teenager. Lectures from me and Dad. Listening to grandfather's stories in the car. Getting your drivers license. Growing, growing, growing. Voice deepening. Girls calling. Working on tobacco. Moving to 21 Oakman St. Discovering football at Turners Falls High School. Papa dies the summer before your senior year. He would have really enjoyed seeing you in the Super Bowl. Jake and Butter romp in Heaven. Cuddling with Brandi Girl. Playing pool with your friends. Eager college lacrosse coaches writing and calling -- hoping you look at their school and team. College visits. At press time we are anticipating the Turkey Day game and the Super Bowl 12/5/98.

As I watch you enter the world on your own I am sad, happy, proud and hopeful. Your insight, sensitivity and intelligence will serve you well. Follow your dreams, remember your heritage and live life to the fullest.

Love, Mom

Eric,
Where did the time go? Oh yeah, skating, biking, hiking, fishing, dirt biking, hunting, baseball, soccer, football, lacrosse, hockey (lots of hockey). It's been a blast. I would do it over again and again and again.
To me you will always be The Best.
Love,
Dad
My favorite picture is the little samurai guy.

nember when we:
d to play hide and seek together at Grammie's house,
for boat rides around the lake in the little boat,
at the "little table" during the holidays,
uld lay on the floor and you would give us piggy back rides, nt to the Boston Garden to see the Disney Show, uld comb your hair and put hair spray in it,
ped on your back as you laid on the floor just to give you a back rub.
newhere along the way, you grew up... and now you are off to ege. Good luck.
e,
, Kathleen, and Bridgette

Eric,
Tom, John and I wish you luck and happiness in your future. Most of all enjoy life and all the experiences it has to offer.
Love,
John Georgi and Tom
P.S. Take your time before you kick.

Eric,
I can't believe I am writing a letter for your senior yearbook-you're making me feel old! As I look back, I should get an award for selling every candy bar in your academic and sports career. I'm very proud of all your accomplishments. You have become a super person that I am glad to have in my life.
Love,
Chuchi and Joe

KRISTI

Oh my sweet baby girl! I can't believe it's almost time to let you go. It seems like only yesterday I was holding you in my arms, watching you make mud pies, chasing the kitty, riding the circus elephant, and gone are the days of pajama parties, girl scouts, birthday party games, dance recitals, CCD and prom dresses. While my heart is filled with the memories of yesterday, I look forward to watching you continue to grow. I've watched my beautiful baby girl become a beautiful young woman. As each year passed, I watched you grow and learn, and experiment with life. I realized that with each success you've achieved that you were capable of doing anything you put your mind to! I'm so proud of you honey!! You are a truly good person and with your spirit, intelligence, creativity and determination, I know life's journey will take you to wonderful places! And always know, my sweet girl, that I love you so very much!

Congratulations Kristi !!
Love, MOM

We're proud of our "Big Sis"! You've always been there for us when we needed you and we want you to know we'll always be there for you too!
Congratulations Kristi on your High School Gratulation, and good luck in all that you do!! We love ya man!

KEVIN

Kevin,
Where did the time go? It's hard to believe that almost 18 years ago, I thanked God for the most wonderful baby boy in the world, my one and only son. Since that time I have had numerous occasions on which I have thanked Him for bringing you into my life. But none of them compare to the thanks I give Him today. I am SO PROUD of you! You have become a truly remarkable young man in all ways; physically, emotionally, spiritually and mentally. You have had to overcome some extremely hard obstacles on your path to manhood but you have sailed over them and become a much better person because of them. You are on your way to becoming a true gentleman which is a very rare thing in this world. Please know that I will always be there for you no matter what happens. I love you with all my heart. LOVE - MOM!!

Kev,

Where has the time gone? Over the years, from the time you were a little boy, until today, a grown man, we have shared some wonderful "adventures". We loved watching you on the fields and court and the time we spent camping, fishing, studying, EATING or just talking have become some of our most cherished memories. Thank you for bringing so much pleasure and pride to our lives.

You're graduating now and we're thrilled for you! We wish you a future full of the happiness and success you deserve. No matter where you go or what you do, always remember how special you are to us and that you are loved more than words can say.

Congratulations,

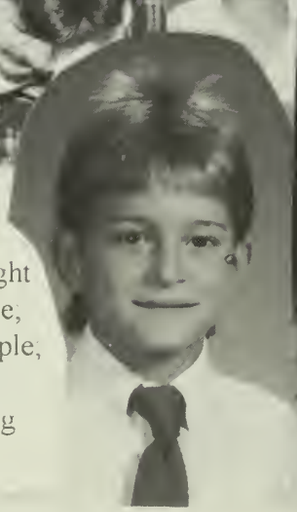
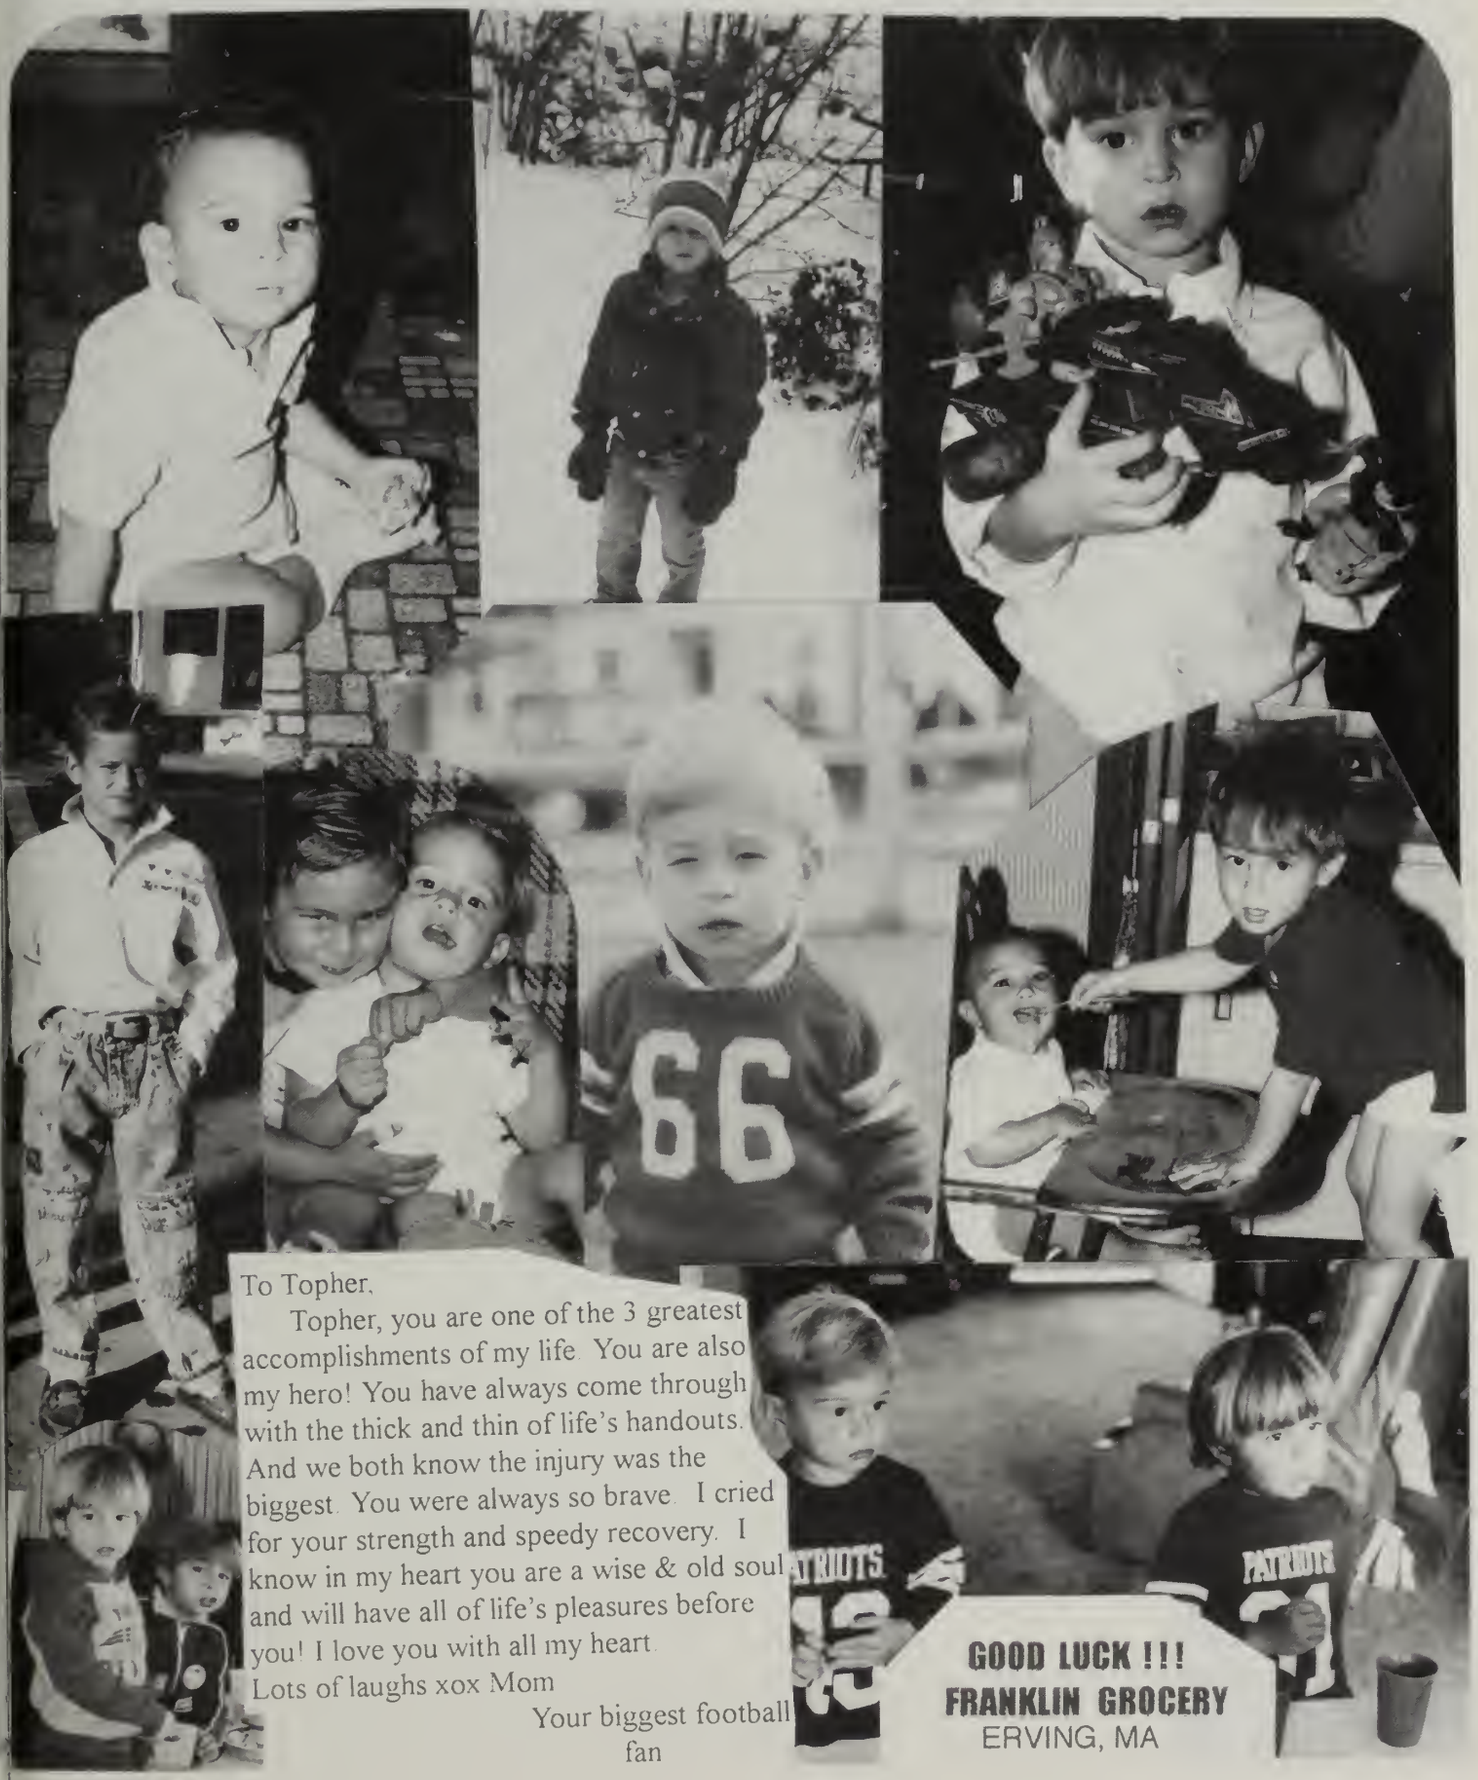
You have changed and enriched my life in inexpressable ways. I have grieved in your sorrows and you have brought me extraordinary joy. Keep your positive, hopeful attitude, your acceptance, without predjudice, for all kinds of people, and that wonderful 'essence of Topher'-your big heart! Thank you for coming to me, for letting me in, for sharing yourself, for being you Always.... Sharon





To Topher,

Topher, you are one of the 3 greatest accomplishments of my life. You are also my hero! You have always come through with the thick and thin of life's handouts. And we both know the injury was the biggest. You were always so brave. I cried for your strength and speedy recovery. I know in my heart you are a wise & old soul and will have all of life's pleasures before you! I love you with all my heart.

I can't believe you are ready to graduate. My, how the years have flown.

It wasn't long ago that I first held you in my arms. Boy, was I a proud Mom. Now, 18 years later, I'm not holding you in my arms, but I'm prouder than I ever thought I could be.

You've become a young man ready to go out into the world. I can only hope I've given you what you need to make it out there. You know it's been hard for me to "take the training wheels off and let go of the seat". You've been doing a fine job without them, but should you need that push, I'm there.

Congratulations to my baby boy! Remember I love you, and I will always be your #1 fan!

Elaine Gibavic

Scootie,

As you approach yet another important milestone in your life path, we can't help but remember a simpler time when Odie was completely content with a bag of popcorn at a meaningless ball game. We have enjoyed the evolution of your interests as they have matured from Jack to Mack, and from orange to the internet. We marvel at the creativity, that produced Ghost Dreams, Uncle Elvis, and the Snowstorm series, and anxiously await further originals sure to result from your current worldwide network of friends.

We are extremely proud of your scholastic achievements and are confident in your ability to achieve anything you desire to do in life. So, follow your heart and your dreams will become reality.

All our love, Mom and Dad

Dear Elaine,
The first grandchild holds a special place and that is yours. You didn't have long to be the grandchild, but long enough to leave clear memories of our delight in you. One of those was your joy in playing with the family marble game, which led to the following poem written for your second birthday.

TWO

Your "whereisit" charmed us last year
When you were barely one,
A flutelike little bird-song,
A wondrous skill begun.

This year, the soft, still bird like voice
Echoes all you hear and see,
"Are you a parrot?" Mommy asks,
"I a parrot," you agree.

The "parrot" stand, with marble poised
To send it down the slide.
The parrot? No! A person here
With options to decide.

The marble starts its downward path
Small fingers race beside.
The marble nears the final turn
"I caught it!" Beaming pride.
Another start. An impish grin
As "All the way!" you shout.
Mesmerized, its progress watched until it comes to rest.
"I missed it!" Beaming, hands held up, with palms turned firmly out.
Two vital skills you demonstrate:
The skill to make a choice
And then the will to so proclaim
In sure and vibrant voice.

So grab the marbles, sweetie,
When the right one comes your way,
But stand with equal sureness and shout with voice as gay,
"I missed it!" as the wrong one goes by you, all the way.

Now, as I look up to you, I see those skills of making a choice and proclaiming that choice are still a part of you. We have every confidence that the many choices you will be making will be thoughtfully made and confidently carried out. We will watch with interest and love the path they take you.

Grammy and Grampy

Elaine (our Scootie),

As you go through life pick some flowers and appreciate the beauty of nature.

Be honest with people and enjoy the good in them.

Don't be afraid to show your emotions- laughing and crying can make you feel better.

Love your family and friends with your entire being. They are the most important part of your life.

Plan what you want to accomplish in your life.

Find a rainbow and live your world of dreams.

Love you
God bless you &

Elaine,

We haven't always been like this. But since we've learned to eat a lot of salad, so you can save room for the baco beans, we've also learned to take the rest home in a doggie bag and have it for lunch tomorrow! Holy Chicago! I almost forgot about "I ran" by a flock of sea gulls! I leave these things, car rides home with Newsies and the Gutter ride - that was fun. Good Luck Sissy.

Love, Melanie

To My Little Snoopy,
If you only knew how proud I am of you. We've had our share of fights and many moments of fun and laughter. From a tiny little boy, afraid of the dark and cats crawling up the side of the house; to one who now camps out in the woods beneath the millions of stars. You've become an inspiring strong willed individual, full of many dreams just waiting to be fulfilled. Your intriguing personality, curiosity, knowledge and love for those around you, that sometimes others don't see, is what I love most about you. It's finally your time to conquer the world. Whatever you do, wherever you go and whoever you become, I believe in you. I will help you. I love you and I will always be proud to be able to call you my brother and my friend.

Love, Jillie-Bean

JOSIAH

Josiah Micah,

Seventeen plus years may seem like forever to you, but it seems like a blink of an eye to me. When I look at you now, I can't believe that childhood has passed, and Alaska awaits !

Trials & tribulations are always a learning experience, so you must be pretty damn smart now!!

Although you are no longer my little "buddha" clinging to my leg, I will always be there with a shoulder to lean on . . or to cry on, arms ready to hug you or to help, and a heart bursting with love and pride that you are "my boy"!

Love,
Dad

Josiah,

You made it!! What a long and winding road it has been.

Whatever happened to that little guy who always had a silly koolaid smile?

We are all so proud of the wonderful person you have become. You see things and always see the best of the situation. You're unique and I hopeyou always follow your dreams. I believe in you. We will always love you.

All our love,
Mom, Dave,
Shelagh & Sarah

and you will never see the shadows"

Congratulations!
We knew you could do it! It is now that your life and dreams will begin to take off. So hold on tight and remember your friends will be there for you to lean on. Always.

We Love You,
Sarah and Chantal
